A NOTE FROM THE DIRECTOR

It's another great week in the RHMS Orchestra! There is not much new information in this week's update but we do have a few announcements.

I am still missing a few membership agreements from students. Please make sure to send those in this week. I will begin reaching out to parents soon about this directly.

I resent the My Music Office Logins again this weekend.

Please make sure the following information is current in My Music Office:

- Parent/guardian contact information
- Current email address and cell phone number
- Any name your student prefers to be called in class

Important Reminder: All orchestra emails will now come from "My Music Office" rather than directly from my school email address. Please be sure to watch for those messages.

All new orchestra parents received an email last week containing our New Parent Resource Guide. If you did not receive that email, please check the email address currently listed in PowerSchool, as well as your spam or junk folder.

Returning orchestra families can access the Parent Resource Guide at any time in the Parent Google Folder.

Have a great week!
Dr. Mock
